

UNCLASSIFIED

17 December 1946

STATINTL

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUPC. I. A. ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTION

STATINTL

MATERNITY LEAVE

STATINTL

STATINTL

*Rescinded
dated 6/24/46*

1. Under authority of regulations relating to annual and sick leave of government employees (as amended June 26, 1946; 11 F. R. 7257), applications for maternity leave may be approved by the Chief, Personnel Division, F & A Branch, under the following circumstances:

- a. Written application will be submitted, accompanied by a doctor's certificate on Standard Form 71.
- b. Normally maternity leave will not exceed six months, including--

- (1) Accumulated sick leave
- (2) Accumulated annual leave
- (3) "Leave without pay status" for any balance of the six months' period after accumulated sick and annual leave have been used up.

2. Upon receipt of written advice from the attending physician certifying to the absolute necessity therefor, the Chief, Personnel Division, F & A Branch, may approve extension of an additional six months' period of maternity leave in a "leave without pay status".

STATINTL

FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

RENUMBERED PER CIA GENERAL ORDER [REDACTED]

STATINTL

STATINTL

[REDACTED]
Colonel, AGD
Executive for Personnel and Administration

SIGNED BUCK SHEET ATTACHED TO C.I.G. ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER [REDACTED]

EFFECTIVE 30 JUNE 1947 CIG ADMINISTRATIVE ORDERS WILL REMAIN IN FORCE UNTIL CANCELLED OR SUPERSEDED

17 December 1946

STATINTL

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

G. I. ADMINISTRATIVE

MATERNITY LEAVE

1. Under authority of regulations relating to annual and sick leave of government employees (as amended June 26, 1946; 11 [REDACTED], applications for maternity leave may be approved by the Chief, Personnel Division, F & A Branch, under the following circumstances:

- a. Written application will be submitted, accompanied by a doctor's certificate on Standard Form 71.
- b. Normally maternity leave will not exceed six months, including--

Accumulated sick leave

Accumulated annual leave

- (3) "Leave without pay status" for any balance of the six months' period after accumulated sick and annual leave have been used up.

2. Upon receipt of written advice from the attending physician certifying to the absolute necessity therefor, the Chief, Personnel Division, F & A Branch, may approve extension of an additional six months' period of maternity leave in a "leave without pay status".

FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Colonel, AGD

Executive for Personnel and Administration

STATINTL

17 December 1946

AI

STATINTL

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

G. I. G. ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

MATERNITY LEAVE

1. Under authority of regulations relating to annual and sick leave of government employees (as amended June 26, 1946; 11 F. R. 7257), applications for maternity leave may be approved by the Chief, Personnel Division, F & A Branch, under the following circumstances:
 - a. Written application will be submitted, accompanied by a doctor's certificate on Standard Form 71.
 - b. Normally maternity leave will not exceed six months, including---
 - (1) Accumulated sick leave
 - (2) Accumulated annual leave
 - (3) "Leave without pay status" for any balance of the six months' period after accumulated sick and annual leave have been used up.
2. Upon receipt of written advice from the attending physician certifying to the absolute necessity therefor, the Chief, Personnel Division, F & A Branch, may approve extension of an additional six months' period of maternity leave in a "leave without pay status".

FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

STATINTL

Colonel, AGD
Executive for Personnel and Administration

17 December 1946

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

C. I. G. ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER [REDACTED]

MATERNITY LEAVE

STATINTL

1. Under authority of regulations relating to annual and sick leave of government employees (as amended June 26, 1946; 11 F. R. 7257), applications for maternity leave may be approved by the Chief, Personnel Division, F & A Branch, under the following circumstances:
 - a. Written application will be submitted, accompanied by a doctor's certificate on Standard Form 71.
 - b. Normally maternity leave will not exceed six months, including--
 - (1) Accumulated sick leave
 - (2) Accumulated annual leave
 - (3) "Leave without pay status" for any balance of the six months' period after accumulated sick and annual leave have been used up.
2. Upon receipt of written advice from the attending physician certifying to the absolute necessity therefor, the Chief, Personnel Division, F & A Branch, may approve extension of an additional six months' period of maternity leave in a "leave without pay status".

FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

STATINTL

[REDACTED]
Colonel, AGD
Executive for Personnel and Administration

[REDACTED]